

More Than Conquerors

1. All hail the might - y Con - queror, Christ Je - sus, our great King!
 2. Yet how can we in - her - it this ti - tle "con - queror" too?
 3. But ris - ing up vic - to - rious He con - quered death and sin,
 4. "You can - not be de - feat - ed by tri - als in this life.
 5. Now since our God is for us what have we then to fear?

All hail the glo - rious War - rior, to Whom our praise we bring. <sup>2</sup>
 We have not earned the mer - it or fame that is His due. <sup>7</sup>
 And reigns in Heav - en glo - rious, each con - flict set to win.
 The con - quest is com - plet - ed o'er Sa - tan, sin and strife.
 Though en - e - mies de - plore us, we face them all with cheer.

May He be giv - en hon - ors by all His ran - somed host:
 For we have on - ly failed Him by ev' - ry sin and doubt;
 To those of His own choos - ing He shares the vic - to - ry;
 No pain, no trib - u - la - tion, no dan - ger, fam - ine, sword,
 For we will be tri - um - phant: each foe will be trod down

We, too, are more than con - querors who make His name our boast.
 In - deed, we cruel - ly nailed Him and cast the Con - queror out.
 Says, "Though you once were los - ing, come con - quer now through me."
 No - noth - ing in cre - a - tion can con - quer those in God."
 Be - neath the Christ ex - ult - ant, who shares the Con - queror's crown.
